

GLOBAL SAGE EXPANDS FINANCIAL SERVICES SEARCH PRACTICE IN THREE KEY REGIONS

(New York, May 16, 2022) – Global Sage is expanding its financial services executive search practice with several key hires in London, New York and Shenzhen, China:

UK/Europe

- Richard Stone has joined Global Sage as a Managing Director in London. Prior to joining Global Sage Richard was a Senior Client Partner with Korn Ferry in Hong Kong, responsible for some of the firm's most important client relationships. He also brings 25 years of experience in Equities Sales Trading and Equities Management, having been Global Head of Sales trading for Standard Chartered and CLSA in Hong Kong, as well as Head of Asian Sales Trading for Merrill Lynch.
- Sharon Szeto has also joined Global Sage as a Director in London and brings over 25 years of executive search and talent acquisition experience. Prior to joining Global Sage, Sharon was Global Talent Acquisition Director at Jabil, a global manufacturing company in Singapore. Sharon also has 15 years of experience in executive search having been previously a Managing Director at Bo Le Associates in Asia.

North America

- Magdalena Wojdat has joined Global Sage as a Director based in New York. Magdalena brings over 15 years of international experience in executive search, talent management and human resources. She works with hedge funds, traditional asset managers, investment banks and private equity firms. Prior to joining Global Sage, Magdalena served as an international HR Business Partner for a tech firm.

Asia Pacific

- Arthur Lui has joined Global Sage as a Director based in China. His appointment expands Global Sage's presence in China to Shenzhen, allowing it to work more strategically with its clients in the Greater Bay Area. Arthur joined from The Page Group and was instrumental in building its onshore PE and VC Practice. He also works closely with Portfolio Companies across the Blockchain & Crypto, AI and Data Centre industries.

"These key hires, part of our continued global growth, demonstrates our commitment as a global leader in executive search in financial services," said Louisa Wong, Executive Chairperson of Global Sage. "We remain committed to helping our financial services clients hire the best talent around the world."

Global Sage is a Hong Kong-headquartered retained executive search firm focused on the financial services industry. The firm has an over 20-year history and operates from 11 offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia.
